Why Our Services Are Always Free

(And how we keep the lights on)

We're Here to Help Families

You'll never pay us for foreclosure prevention. This is our mission and passion.

Investors Pay Us

Our main business is helping real estate investors handle tricky cases—divorce, probate, liens, and foreclosure workouts. They cover our costs.

Financing Fees (Only if Needed)

If we arrange new financing to stop a foreclosure, there may be normal lender fees. The prevention work itself is still free.

When Selling Is the Best Choice

Sometimes the only option is to sell. In that case, our affiliated investment company may buy and renovate the home.

Buying the Mortgage Note

Another option is buying your loan directly from the bank. That stops foreclosure, and we earn later as the new lender or by working with our investor network.

Simple Truth

Families in crisis don't pay us. Investors do. That's what makes it all possible.
